What is Petite Purls?

Petite Purls (www.petitepurls.com) is a free, online magazine specializing in knitting patterns for babies, toddlers and older children. We also offer patterns in crochet, sewing and other unique crafts. Our designs are exquisitely crafted and fashion forward accompanied by beautiful photography. Our magazine is rounded out by wonderful articles, interviews and product reviews. We like to think that we offer a little something for everyone. The magazine is published four times a year.

We also maintain an active blog for the magazine where we offer Advertiser Spotlight posts for all of our lovely advertisers, as well as more product reviews, giveaways, and "Behind the Scenes" posts. We have a series of interviews featured on the blog with well known "Renaissance Moms" (E.g. Debbie Bliss, Amanda Soule, Joanna Johnson) which focuses on amazing women who are successful mothers and business owners in the crafting world.

What's different about Petite Purls?

What sets us apart from other online knitting magazines? Here at Petite Purls, we like to think that we have filled the void in a long neglected area of the online knitting community, offering free high quality children's patterns. We are a niche publication, opening doors for designers that specialize in children's garments, who otherwise might not have the opportunity or interest to submit elsewhere. We also offer crochet and sewing and other unique crafts. Our site has a little something for everyone.

Summer 2009 Issue

Advertising on Petite Purls

Since our inaugural issue in June 2009, we have tripled our readership as well as our advertising:

Over 803,000 visits (524,000 visitors)

2.1 million page views

Traffic rises with each issue

Our top three visiting countries are: US, Canada and the UK.

To each of our advertisers, we offer a blog post in our "Advertiser Spotlight" series. We devote an entire post (during the three month's span of the live issue in which they are advertising) to their business, whether it is an overview of their shop or product, or to help promote something new that the business is offering. These posts have been very popular on the blog and are very attractive to advertisers that are considering sponsoring us. We feel it is just as important to support our advertisers as it is for them to support us. These blog posts are our token of gratitude.

Back to Basics Feature:

Back to Basics is a permanent fixture on the site, not part of any seasonal issue. We offer very classic, simple, unisex designs, that are offered in a full range of sizes from baby to youth. New patterns are added to the collection intermittently throughout the year between issues. This collection has received rave reviews from readers because of the accessibility of the collection to all levels of knitters.
